Von Candace Camp : A Stolen Heart (The Lost Heirs) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Stolen Heart (The Lost Heirs):

A true romantic adventureVon Ein KundeWhen I first started this story, I thought it fit the standard formula pretty well. I hoped it would pick up by adding a twist or two. Well- did it EVER! Wow! This book was great! Alexandra was so likable as the outspoken American heroine and Sebastian - YUM! A really sexy hero! They were immediately attracted to each other and the romance scenes were really well done. That would have been enough, but Camp added tons of great adventure and "barely-catch-your-breath" action. I must say I enjoyed every minute of this book. A sequel is being released this August which features the "lost" sister, Marie Anne. I can hardly wait!2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Strong characters - interesting story, can't wait for next!Von Ein KundeIt is always great to read about a strong, smart heroine in a regency romance novel. On top of that, she runs her own business which is refreshing. The attraction between the two characters were believable from the start and you want them to get it together so badly throughout the novel. The story about Alexandra's parents background is also very interesting. I kept looking for signs of her brother and sister in the book. Will there be a story about the highwayman that help them? This is a great story with great characters that pull you in.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. You did it again Candace CampVon K. LiningerI love to read stories with strong chracters. Here comes Alexandra, a strong, determined, and outspoken American who is a business owner in a man's world. She meets Sebastian (Lord Thorpe). He is intriqued by this beautiful American and can't believe that she is what she appears to be. Is she really the busines owner she claims? Is she really the good hearted and honest woman that he wants to believe in? There are a lot of twists and turns in this delightful romance. It keeps you guessing up until the end who is good and who isn't so good. Have a fun time visiting Regency England.
