Mom Except Me? Von Ingrid Stephanie Jordan
Title: A True Alpha Christmas
Author: Alisa Woods
Reviewer: Stephanie Jordan
I really enjoyed this book is another story of Lucas and Mia. This is another of Ms. Woods short read 80 page, you just get all in to this book and it's over, it's almost cruel. BUT YET your hooked looking to see when is the next book coming out. Lucas Sparks lives in the Silicon Valley they call Emerald City, in Washington State. Running a family business, SparkTech. Lucas is a billionaire entrepreneur and the Alpha to the Sparks Pack. Mia Fiore is a college student at University of Washington, she is also an intern at SparkTech. Mia has always hidden that she's a Shifts from everyone, even her mom. But all that changed when she met and fell in love with her Alpha! her Mate! Lucas.

Kurzbeschreibung
Christmas is a magical time and a hard time to keep secrets. Mia is your everyday college girl, trying to earn her business degree and a shifter who's long hidden her identity from everyone, including her mother, who believes shifter is synonymous with criminal. Six months ago, sexy and powerful alpha-male Lucas rescued her in an alley and claimed her for his mate. Now Mia's heart belongs to Lucas, and everyone in the world of shifters understands the magic of their mating has bonded them for life. But in the human world, there's no wedding ring on her finger to show for it. With Christmas looming, Mia's mother wants to finally meet Mia's mysterious and high-powered live-in lover. With her human and shifter lives about to irrevocably collide, Mia fears there will be nothing but broken hearts in the end.
A True Alpha Christmas (Shifters of Seattle 3) is an after story novella with HEA, approximately 80 pages or 20,000 words, best enjoyed after reading True Alpha and Dark Alpha. It contains scorching hot shifter only readers over 18 should dive into the steamy world of Shifters in Seattle.
