Brigid has been away at school and living a life away from her family obligations and duties. She has fallen in love with a fellow classmate named James. James is perfect on the outside, but deep down hides a big secret from Brigid. Upon returning to her families homestead on Cavanagh Mountain she is thrown into a shifter war between her bear family, and the alpha wolf clan of Alec

Sauvageot. Alec is a very sleek sexy wolf. He has been so patient with the Cavanagh clan; but he cannot take it any longer, he desires a mate. Not just any, but one of an Alpha bloodline. Alec wants what every alpha needs, a place to call home for his family. He has not need for the high bear roaming top. Alec requires the land closer to the lower level. Alec and Rory have come to an agreement, but will Brigid agree? I loved this final book in the series. Savannah Blake does a good job of bringing closure to a fierce battle of wills for the Cavanagh, wolf and brown bear clans. I look forward to reading more books and series from this author.
