A walk awayVon Renate ZiescheThis walk is just a real pleasure to take, having been in Maine I could picture most of the places..My recommendation to everybody looking for a great read...It was my first book from Lacey Schmidt...for sure not my last!

KurzbeschreibungKat and Rands daily worlds are 2,100 miles apart, but something about their meeting on the magical shores of the nations oldest national park east of the Mississippi sparks questions that neither woman can just walk away from without answering.Sometimes chance brings you to the right person to help you resolve some of your baggage, and you learn to like yourself a little more. Kat and Rand are smart enough to recognize this chance in each other, but they also find that there is a catch to every opportunitywalking toward something is always walking away from something else.An Affinity Contemporary RomanceKurzbeschreibungKat and Rands daily worlds are 2,100 miles apart, but something about their meeting on the magical shores of the nations oldest national park east of the Mississippi sparks questions that neither woman can just walk away from without answering.Sometimes chance brings you to the right person to help you resolve some of your baggage, and you learn to like yourself a little more.
