Especially liked the way Dennis went from irritated and shallow father to a flesh and blood, worried, real Daddy after taking day and night responsibility for his children. Claire thought (as most mothers might admit to) that when he actually tried full-time parenting he would throw up his hands and give up custody of the kids on his own. Instead he grew in character and everyone, especially the children, were better for it. 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Another Hit Von Ein Kunde This was a great book. I couldn't put it down from the moment I began reading. It made me angry in the beginning and happy at the end. It showed the growth of all the characters, including the children. Normally I probably wouldn't have picked this up because of the subject matter, but anything Barbara Delinsky writes is usually good. Pick this one up if you like a page turner! 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Successful Business Woman's Worst Nightmare Von Holli M Messenger I love this book because the writing is excellent but the story is one of the most compelling I've ever read. Delinsky made me care about the characters, to the point where I wanted to cry, laugh and scream at times. I can honestly say I hated being interrupted when reading it and couldn't wait to get back into it. I think this is the best Delinsky book I've read thus far.
