Great readVon Philomena(Cheekypee)If you haven't read Mirage then go read it before you read this book or you may just be scratching your head in confusion :)After reading Mirage I was so looking forward to reading this book. This continues straight from the jaw dropping end of Mirage.This book is a right rollercoaster of emotions. I literally sat and read from start to finish. The four main characters are brilliant in this story. I am so looking forward to reading Kylee's story, Facade. Received in return for an honest review.

Kurzbeschreibung Broken and battered, Mira is fighting to put herself back together while her heart is trying to forget. How can she move forward with one man and be hopelessly in love with another? Skylar is wrestling demons he never could've imagined. The girl he's been in love with for years finally shares the same feelings, but her heart could possibly lie somewhere else. With emotions running hot, how long can he survive before his willpower shatters? Three people, two choices, one heart. Who can come out on top when someone you love so much will lose? Is Mira's awakening going to ruin everything these friends have built?
