Von Stephanie Bond : Baby, Don't Go (Southern Roads) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Baby, Don't Go (Southern Roads):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. strange bookVon Ein KundeBond tries to copy many of today's contemp. romance writers by introducing the elements of murder and suspense in their romance plotlines. This one is a little too gory and not that character romance is not that clear or interesting. It's worth a read if you really have nothing better to do. but definitely not a book to put on a wish list.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Entertaining, Well-Written Light ReadVon SimoneThis was an entertaining, campy book. The characters were pretty well developed and the story was fun enough with just a bit of mystery that kept you entertained. Not a serious book by any means and not a whole lot of dramatic scandal going on, but it flowed enough that i was able to say hmm interesting.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nette Lektüre für Fans von Stephanie Plum Von Daisy Duck Eine verpeilte Heldin, viel Witz und peinliche Situationen. Hübsches Buch für Zwischendurch. Wer die Romane über die Kautionsdetektivin Stephanie Plum mag, wird auch die "Party Crashers" mögen.

Kurzbeschreibung Southern town seeks single women. Though they're nothing but trouble... The hardheaded Armstrong brothers are determined to rebuild their tornado-ravaged hometown in the Georgia mountains. They've got the means, they've got the manpower... what they need are women! So they place an ad in a Northern newspaper and wait for the ladies to arrive... Eldest brother Marcus Armstrong considers the estrogen-influx an irritating distraction. He's running a town, not a dating service! Reporter Alicia Randall thinks the Armstrong brothers are running a scam and she intends to prove it--even if it means seducing oh-so-sexy Marcus in the process. Sizzling sex and a hot story? Win-win!
