Loved it!Von expatA great book about a somewhat shallow young woman who marries a frog look-alike for all the wrong reasons.But .....Can really recommend it to people who enjoy a novel that, even though it is on the light side ,is still a page turner.In future when confronted by a frog -ladies ,take a closer look.:-)0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Kurzbeschreibung A comic, uncorny update of the old fairy tale about the princess who marries a no-hope nerd. SHE Magazine. Your boyfriend has just announced that hes buying a flat with his ex-lover. Your mothers efforts to sweep you off the shelf and into the pocket of a prospective husband have landed you with the most offensive blind date known to woman. Its raining, youre crying, you step off the kerb and into the path of an on-coming car. The man who manages not to run you over isnt good-looking. Or interesting. Hes driving an ancient Ford Escort. But he offers to take you home, and he likes your company enough to ask you out. Self-pity and lack of attention lead you to accept. And your biological clock is ticking, and he lives in Monte-Carlo, and youre stuck in a rut So you marry him. Then you wake up from your misery-induced stupor, and realise the truth. All your life you were waiting for a prince, but youve married the frog. Perhaps hed be transformed, if you could only bring yourself to kiss him
