KurzbeschreibungGrief, greed and grudges - the perfect recipe for murder ...The death of a much loved member of the community is the catalyst for another murder in the bustling English coastal town of St. Eves. When relatives of the deceased arrive in town it's not long before tempers flare as they become consumed by greed, so intent are they to get their hands on the family fortune. As hostilities go from bad to worse, Charlotte Denver inherits a new addition to her family and becomes involved in a feud which threatens to rid her beloved town of a long-standing landmark. When a body is discovered in the car park of a local hotel, Detective Chief Inspector Nathan Costello heads up the murder investigation as Charlotte delves for clues to the identity of the killer, and finds her life in danger as the story twists and turns its way to a dramatic conclusion.Join Charlotte and the rest of the St. Eves' residents in this, the second book in the Charlotte Denver Cozy Mystery Series.Please note; This book is written in British English and contains no strong profanity, sex or graphic violence.KurzbeschreibungGrief, greed and grudges - the perfect recipe for murder ...The death of a much loved member of the community is the catalyst for another murder in the bustling English coastal town of St. Eves. Since then shes read many more, finding new authors to add to her list of favourites along the way and enjoying the different approach and style that each author brings to their own cozy mystery stories. Apart from writing, Sherris main interests include her dog, cooking, reading, watching crime and US political dramas, and dreaming up new cozy mystery plots.
