Von JB Lynn : Further Confessions of a Slightly Neurotic Hitwoman before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Further Confessions of a Slightly Neurotic Hitwoman:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Action packed cliffhangerVon CarinaAs the title suggests, this is the second part of the "Slightly Neurotic..." series. It was as fast paced as the first, the hunks were to die for and I love speaking animals, so I forgave the blatant Deus ex machina and various other weaknesses. JB Lynn is clearly an enthusiastic writer with lots of potential, so one should give her credit for that. The question is for how long? Competition is stronger than ever these days, with top notch stories like Phone Kitten selling at half the price. Hopefully the third installment will be the charm.

ber den Autor und weitere MitwirkendeBesides being a writer, JB Lynn is a compulsive reader, a runner (of sorts), an enthusiastic cook (who doesn't get the appeal of the Food Network), and someone who has an irresistible urge to eavesdrop at all times.JB has a great love of her husband, dogs, coffee, purple ink, spiral notebooks, running gear, hot showers, and '80s music. Given enough time, all of these things will eventually show up in her books.
