face and a craving to read more of Callum and Jonah! A must read not only for a Christmas time!

Kurzbeschreibung Every Christmas, child chorister Jonah Lennox used to meet Callum Noakes at Aylminster cathedral when Callum's mother came to sell roasted chestnuts at the market. After years of friendship, an argument separates them, apparently forever. Putting away the memories of his lost friend, Jonah left the cathedral and moved on with his life. When Jonah returns to the cathedral after ten years away, the market in the cathedral brings back memories and Callum, who has made a life for himself as a woodturner. Upon meeting again, attraction pulls them together, and the holiday may inspire their old friendship to mature into new romance. A story from the Dreamspinner Press 2013 Advent Calendar package "Heartwarming".
