Von Kimberly Vargas : Gumbeaux (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gumbeaux (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. sehr einfhlsame Geschichte eines LebensVon -KundeGumbeaux ist ein gutes Buch ber das Erwachsenwerden eines gequkten Charakters. Mary/Veronica ist auf der Suche nach Freiheit und geht ihre ganz eigenen Wege, um diese zu finden. Dabei werden die Situationen und auch die Charaktere aus ihrer Sicht gut beschrieben. Insbesondere erhlt der Staat Louisiana und seine Lebensweise durch dieses Buch viel besonderen Charme. Das Englisch ist gut zu lesen, sollte nicht zu anspruchsvoll sein. Auch sind mir keine nennenswerten Fehler aufgefallen.

Kurzbeschreibung Where do you go when you disappear? For young heiress Mary Fait, the answer is New Orleans. After the death of her parents, she is placed in the care of her alcoholic uncle. For years, she assists her uncle in growing the family empire, all the while plotting his demise and / or her escape. A college scholarship gives her the opportunity to break free of her life to start a new one - under a new name. Follow Mary and her often hilarious misadventures in the early 1990's while attending college in a small town in Louisiana. The story reads as a series of diary entries which chronicle the thoughts, feelings, and experiences of the main character during this time in her life. The novel's title refers to a cajun restaurant in which the main character works as a waitress. The colorful descriptions of the town of Bayou Bend, the college, its inhabitants and the surrounding areas paint a vivid and amusing tale of life in the South.
