is "just" the second book. I nearly longed for Lavender and Laydon's story after it was getting clearer in "Handsome Hero Wanted" that between these two sexy beasts it is more than the usual cat-and-dog-fight. Both together are just like dynamite and fire...and we're not even talking about the sex here! The sexual tension at every moment they're near each other gets your skin tingling and their make-up sex just leaves your mouth watering for more. Even in dangerous situations, they can't let their hands off each other for long. (Just remembering hanging outside of a space ship and getting horny and what to do against it! Really great job with that scene, James Cox, haven't got that in my imagination for being possible at all!) As Laydon gets really aware of his feelings for his feline it is nearly too late, or isn't it?! And Lavender, will he stay with his sexy mutt, no matter what the future holds? You just have to read to get to know, but believe me, you won't be disappointed. This book is just a great and sexy read!

Kurzbeschreibung Travel the universe, meet new people, and find some nice ass...what was wrong with that plan? Layden had to take it one step further and fall in love with a man his complete opposite. Lavender was of the Feline clan while Layden of The Golden Wolf Clan. The sex was fantastic. It was everything else that was the challenge. Although, every big fight ended in a world-class romp. Even with all the yelling, Layden fell in love with the lanky, finicky Lavender. Until the day their pasts came to find them and Lavender is kidnapped by his own people. Now Layden must find his problematic mate and save him before Lavender is lost forever. Prepare for some epic failures in escape plans, frottage in a space suit, and a handsome twink that plays dirty.
