more. However, half way through the book I guessed the ending. Its an Okay book to do a report on, but not exactly a page-turner. I recomend A wrinkle in time, ella enchanted,his dark marterials, and half-magic if your in to wizard-type books.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Alurring, yet confusion rans rampant.Von 1# M2M FanAfter reading this wonderful book,I had never more wished to become a wizard. Spells always work, and the characters seem REAL! But it will puzzle you excessively.Read past the confusing parts, or "skim".Overall, a amazing work of art.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Stephen King without the potty mouthVon BernieYep, it is pretty much the "Dark Tower" all over again. Impossible menacing objects and cliffhangers with solutions the come out of the air at the last moment to keep from painting the hero and heroine into an inescapable corner.13 year old Nita is being zeroed in by the neighborhood girl gang. Their intention is to beat the snot out of her. In the process of evading her fate she ducks into the Library basement. Minding her own business and pawing the books one snags her. You guessed it; the title is "So You Want To Be a Wizard."Naturally, young wizards can out wiz, out think, and out run the bad guys (maybe), in this first book of a series.

KurzbeschreibungNita Callahan is at the end of her rope because of the bullies who've been hounding her at school... until she discovers a mysterious library book that promises her the chance to become a wizard. But she has no idea of the difference that taking the Wizard's Oath is going to make in her life. Shortly, in company with fellow beginner-wizard Kit Rodriguez, Nita's catapulted into what will be the adventure of a lifetime -- if she and Kit can both live through it. For every wizard's career starts with an Ordeal in which he or she must challenge the one power in the universe that hates wizardry more than anything else: the Lone Power that invented death and turned it loose in the worlds.Plunged into a dark and deadly alternate New York full of the Lone One's creatures, Kit and Nita must venture into the very heart of darkness to find the stolen, legendary Book of Night with Moon. Only with the dangerous power of the wizardly Book do they have a chance to save not just their own lives, but their world...Diane Duane's classic novel of young wizardry has delighted readers for nearly three decades and is now available as an Errantry Press Kindle book for its readers outside North America..deAges 10 up. In the spirit of Madeleine L'Engle's classic A Wrinkle in Time, this is a fascinating and powerfully involving story about two lonely kids who are inadvertently caught up in the never-ending battle between good and evil. The problems of everyday adolescent life and the mysteries of magic are perfectly blended, along with plenty of humor and suspense. In a starred review, School Library Journal wrote, "well-structured and believable... this fantasy should have wide appeal." Horn Book wrote, "a splendid, unusual fantasy... an outstanding, original work." .comAges 10 up.
