Wolfe Von Ein Kunde Undoubtedly the best pre-war Wolfe alongside Fer-de-Lance. Here we find Stout really hitting his stride in rounding out his two lead characters and their relationship. It also has one of the better plots, and is notable for the debut of Lily Rowan. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nero Wolfe at his best and Archie is founding a prisoners union Von Sambucco Here fun meets suspense. Archie meets Lily Rowan first time. We learn that back in those days US$1,8 bought you lunch for 2 and they repaired wrecked card for US60. I loved to follow Nero and Archie into a crowded exhibition. As usual Nero knows the solution much ahead of everybody, but this time he has a challenge. The evidence has been burned by the authorities. But Nero finds a way and Archie, well he found Lily for a first private lesson on detecting.

Kurzbeschreibung A prize bull, a restaurateur's tacky publicity stunt, a family feud (among the bull's owners), and the death of a family scion pit Nero Wolfe and Archie Goodwin against a special breed of killer. From Library Journal It has been years since the orchid-growing eccentric Nero Wolfe has been outside his beloved home. This novel finds him in upstate New York with Archie Goodwin where he must endure poor food, uncomfortable chairs, warm beer, and three dead bodies. A family feud over the fate of a prize bull (send him to a stud farm or a steak house) plus tacky publicity stunts and blackmail all fit into the situation, told from Archie's point of view. Michael Prichard's reading is clear and adds to the atmosphere and overall enjoyment of the story. Recommended. ?Denise A. Garofalo, Mid-Hudson Lib.
