Von Judith Lennox : Some Old Lover's Ghost before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Some Old Lover's Ghost:

History, relationships, danger, excitement, and a murder thrown in for good measure. I rarely find a book that engages me on so many levels, but this was one of them. A fine melding of the past and the present through the eyes of the biographer, it was a wonderful way to read the story. I enjoyed drifting back and forth between the past and the present. I bought the book on Friday afternoon and finished it by Sunday at noon, and wished there were more to the story. This is a great read!

I was thrilled with this book. I started the book thinking it was one of those "light reads" that would be mildly entertaining. I was surprised at the depth of the characters and plot. I had to finish it in one sitting! A great read for a cold Sunday afternoon in front of the fire! There was just enough suspense to keep the reader on edge, but the suspense was blended in with a great love story! Highly recommended.

I found this book to be so engrossing. Ms. Lennox has enriched my life in some small way. When I was done reading "Some Old Lover's Ghost" I felt as if the characters were standing in the room with me sharing their joys and tragedies. So compelling and so detailed is this book that one walks away from it wishing it were not done. Definitely a great book.
