Something did not quite work for meVon Avid ReaderPutney has been an auto-buy for me for several years, but I found this latest offering disappointing, though it's hard to put my finger on just what did not work. The characters all speaking in the same style - but that did not put me off in earlier works. Maybe it was too many coincidences in the plot? Somehow I found this love story less than compelling, compared to classic Putney novels of earlier years, that I still like to reread on occasion.

Kurzbeschreibung "Putney's reputation as one of the finest writers of Regency romance is well deserved.
