This is a wonderful love storyVon klatham@erols.comSharon Gillenwater has written a wonderful, believable story about love and the power of the Lord to work in people's lives. Her setting in England and Scotland makes a vivid image and exciting story. Her research skills are obvious in the details that she includes. Anyone who is disappointed by this romance is likely used to typical romances. Those published by Palisades have a deeper story line to include the power of the Lord and how a relationship with Jesus Christ is essential to salvation. This is natural in the the story based on the characters that Gillenwater has created. I believe this element adds to the characters and the story, not detracts from it. Thank you Mrs. Gillenwater for an excellent book!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A moving and challenging work.Von Ein KundeThis was the first of Ms. Gillenwater's books I have read, and I was impressed with her ability to portray characters sincerely devoted to serving Christ and to honoring Him in their relationships with the opposite sex. For years I read secular romances, shunning Christian romances for fear that they would be sappy, boring, and unrealistic. To my delight, I found the characters in this book to be very real and the story to be every bit as passionate, humorous, and interesting as any other I have read. I highly recommend it and look forward to reading other books by Ms. Gillenwater.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Can't wait for the sequel!!!!Von Ein KundeI love a story that draws you in. The characters in the story made you feel as though you were living in the same shoes as themselves. Not like typical stories where you can see things from just the heroine's point of view, there is a depth to this book that I have not found in many others. Jeanne and her love were my favorite characters, even above Mariah. Jeanne's simple faith in God through the story is something I try to have; and it is easier for me to sympathize with a `depending-on-God' style heroine than one who is unsure of the God she `loves'.
