general. I love the fact that when I started this story (and actually all the books in this series) I could just read--there were no feelings of dis-belief or "come on, that is ridiculous" even though I knew that it was made up. Only a really good author can do something like that. And of course Oscar was wonderful, grumpy but really loyal. It could be me, but I felt like the story was a bit darker, with a big premonition big things were going to happen... If there was anything to complain about it would be that there was less said about Lily's shop. And although I missed hearing about the shop the overall story was so good that I still finished the book feeling satisfied! 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Zurück zur alten Form Von Fuchs Joannachdem ich mit den letzten beiden Bänden der Serie doch meine liebe Mhe hatte, las sich dieser Band wieder wie zu alten Zeiten. Eine gute, komplexe Geschichte, mit vielen spannenden Charakteren. Vielleicht hätte man noch ein ganz klein wenig vertiefen können, dennoch war das Buch sehr spannend und stimmig. 4.8 Punkte, weiter so.
