original V.C. Andrews books and having been a captured reader of HER books, I can only say that when her reads came out originally, I believed this writer to be a PHENOMENON, and still do! However this book, as well as many of the other books, written by 'other hired writers' just don't seem to cut it for me. These writings done after her death don't seem to have the same appeal and have never been able to capture her forte. For me, this book was another disappointment. In my mind there will never be anyone who can write her books and I think most of the new books written by 'other writers' just shouldn't be using her name. But that's just my opinion. I keep buying them or getting them at local library, so it's something in them that keeps me coming back. I think though, that it is the hope of finding another one that can equal Victoria's writing herself. And that's just never going to happen. Sorry. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. UGH! Von Ein Kunde I too am one of the fans of the older, more intense novels. The only one in this series so far with anything even remotely shocking is "Jade". The narrative style is horrible--considering that the girls are speaking, the language is very unconversational. Who would really tell an oral story using phrases like "She looked at me sadly, her eyes searching me like two tiny headlights." Which brings me to another complaint: Every girl uses the cheesiest metaphors, and none have a distinctive voice--each story sounds like it's being told by the same girl. If I hadn't gotten these first three for 1/2 off, I'd be mad at the waste of money. But I guess they were worthy of 1 star and $2.00 each for keeping me mildly amused for a few hours... I will buy cat and the reunion novels but only when they too are 1/2 off or in the used bookstores. I agree with the person who said these last 2 series have been an insult to VC Andrews' name and writing! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. AWFUL Von Ein Kunde This book was awful. I will continue to buy books by V. C. Andrews because I love the ones that SHE wrote (dollanganger, casteel and audrina) the cutler, landry and logan series were alright, but what is with these horrid orphans and wildflower books??? Please Mr. Neiderman, don't disgrace V. C. Andrews name and lagacy with another miniseries after this awful second one. Write books like the first three series of ghost written books, not R. L. Stine clones. If the horror and rage cannot be done again like in the books that SHE wrote, then at least return to the drama that was in the landry, cutler and logan series, I swear, these two miniseries are some of the worst books that i'm sort of emabarassed to have in my collection, but they have V. C.'s name on them, so they belong there, i just miss the old V. C. Andrews.
