Von Julia London : Summer of Two Wishes (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Summer of Two Wishes (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Highly emotional and bittersweetVon Steffi A.I think that one does not necessarily have to experience the loss of a loved one to understand how horrible and painful that must be. Very few however can imagine what it would be like to discover that a loved one who is supposed to be dead is not dead at all but alive and quiet well. But Macy Lockhart has to face both: Her husband's death AND his "resurrection".****Three years ago, two U.S. Army Casualty Notification Officers told Macy that her husband Finn had died in Afghanistan. Devastated and lonely she tried to hold on to her memories of Finn and the passionate, happy love they'd shared. But time passed and Macy came to realize that she had to go on with her life and so one day she met Wyatt Clark - a wealthy man who is very different from Finn. But it was Wyatt who helped her through this hard time and gave her life a new meaning and though she would always love Finn she fell in love with Wyatt too and married him. But then Finn comes back, after three years of captivity, and Macy has to face the fact that now she has two husbands and that she is in love with two men at the same time. Knowing that she has to make a decision she retreats to her aunt's ranch while both men keep fighting for her. She loves Wyatt and doesn't want to hurt him but she has been given a second chance with Finn, her true love, and she desperately wants a future with him. But then she discovers that she's carrying Wyatt's baby...and once again she has no idea what to do...****Julia London's characters are well written and lovable as always! I think that Macy is handling her dilemma quiet well, always trying to be honest with both men. Both heroes are great. They are very different but each one is adorable in his own way and I could feel with them both.....with Finn - fighting to forget the horrible memories of his captivity and coming home only to discover that everything he had is more or less gone...and with Wyatt - afraid to lose the only woman he had ever loved. "Only" 4 stars because with three people involved there is necessarily one who will end up the loser and although I'm happy for Macy and the man she finally chose I can not help being incredibly sorry for the one who's left behind :-(. Also, the story is not really new. Have you ever seen the movie "Pearl Harbour" or "Sweet home Alabama"? Well then consider yourself forewarned because you'll find a lot of similarities....
